Dear Judge Greenwood:

Pursuant to 9 NYCRR 580.14, "The official record of the hearing shall be filed with the agency and shall include: (i) the application and all notices (including the notice of hearing and any notices of appearance) and motions..." An applicant does not have to offer its application to be part of the record. It is automatically part of the record. Thus, here, the application in its entirety is already part of the record. Furthermore, it is already filed with the Agency.

If the application is not deemed part of the record, I hereby object and request that the application, in its entirety, be included in the record.

With all of that said, I'm going home to watch Thursday Night Football.

Sincerely,

Matthew D. Norfolk, Esq.

We are working on sharing the pre-conference recordings separately. I was not able to access one of the recordings provided by ALJ Greenwood and the August 14th recording was not included in the file.

Thank you,
Grace
