Re: In the matter of the application of Unconventional Concepts, Inc. and Michael Hopmeier –
P2021-0276

Dear Judge Greenwood,

As discussed at the scheduling call on December 11, 2025, the undersigned counsel agree to require that all parties complete a notice of appearance in order to participate in the proceedings.

A signed notice of appearance would help develop a full and complete record by clearly identifying parties and the representatives authorized to act on their behalf; and would allow the hearing to efficiently proceed without delays or unnecessary disruptions. Notices of appearance would also help in maintaining the service list, so the parties to the hearing are able to identify other parties that are required to receive notice of any filings made in this proceeding.

A form notice of appearance to be completed by any party to the proceeding, or their representative(s), is attached for your review. If this form notice is acceptable, the undersigned counsel propose to publish the document on the Agency's website.

Respectfully Submitted,

Grace Sullivan
Attorney for the APA

Matthew D. Norfolk
Attorney for the Project Sponsor

ALJ Greenwood
