Re: In the matter of the application of Unconventional Concepts, Inc. and Michael Hopmeier –
P2021-0276

Dear Judge Greenwood,

At the January 21, 2026 pre-hearing conference held in connection with the above-mentioned proceeding, the undersigned counsel jointly agreed to a process for publication of hearing documents on the Agency website. As discussed, in order to facilitate the efficient conduct of these proceedings, and as a courtesy to the named parties, the Agency agreed to post to the Agency's hearing webpage (<https://apa.ny.gov/permitting/topic/permit-hearing.html>) any signed letter correspondence, motions, responses, final stipulations, rulings, determinations, and orders. The Agency will make its best efforts to post such documents with one business day of receipt, however the Agency shall not assume any responsibility for delayed postings. If a reasonable time has elapsed and a party believes that a document is missing from the webpage, that party should alert Grace Sullivan (grace.sullivan@apa.ny.gov). In the case of a dispute concerning the scope of this stipulation, any party may submit a written request to your Honor to determine whether a document should be published to the webpage.

The parties acknowledge that the documents published on the hearing webpage do not represent the final, complete or official record in this proceeding, nor constitute any summary of the proceedings pursuant to sections 580.14(g) and/or 580.18 of Agency regulations.

Respectfully Submitted,

Grace Sullivan
