

Lakes and Ponds Entirely Surrounded by Forest Preserve Classification

This chart shows the number of lakes and ponds found in each state land classification in the Adirondack Park.

*Note: State land classification selection based on the most intensive classification found on the shoreline. For example, if a water body has shoreline classified as Wilderness and Wild Forest, the classification is identified as Wild Forest.